2. You will receive mad props from your hacking/anarchy friends
3. You will gain instant respect from many sectors of society resulting in improved happiness and financial well-being which we all know go together.
4. You will be "leet"
5. Next time your friends make fun of you for sitting around and doing nothing all day, you can show them a copy of the zine and make them feel stupid.
6. You will be filled with that warm fuzzy feeling you get when you occasionally get off your lazy ass and do something productive.
7. You will likely be mentioned in an FBI file which is something you can show your future kids to convince them that you used to be cool.
8. You'll help introduce radical ideas to hackers around the world.
9. You'll help combat the trends of technical illiteracy and technophobia in radical circles that leads to unsafe, nonstrategic use of technology.
10. This is the secret reason which you hide from the world because of how embarrassed you are about it. We don't know what it is, but we know it's horrible and shameful so please keep it to yourself.
